

AUGHTON PARISH COUNCIL

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Due to the Public Health Pandemic and in the light of the risks posed, the annual Ceremony of Remembrance at Granville Park War Memorial will not take place this year.

The Clergy from the 3 Aughton Churches filmed the Remembrance Service earlier this month with just 6 people present, including the Chairman of Aughton Parish Council - Councillor Graham Jones - and two representatives of the Scout & Guide uniformed groups and the viewing arrangements for the local community can be found via the Church websites or by contacting the Clergy as follows:

St Michael's Church - Reverend Andrew Housley - the video can be viewed on 11 November from 11am at www.aughtonstmichael.org.uk

Any Aughton Group wishing to lay a wreath or local residents wishing to place a wooden cross, or simply visit the site can do so throughout the day on Remembrance Sunday, 8 November 2020, from 12 noon but under strict social distancing measures.

Sadly, as detailed on the Royal British Legion website, people are simply being encouraged to ensure Remembrance Sunday is still marked appropriately by taking part in remote and socially distanced activity, whether that be watching the service on television, on-line via the churches or pausing for the 2 minute silence in their homes or on their doorsteps.
